I am currently at Glasgow Caledonian University, in my 3rd year studying to attain a BSc (Hons) Computer Games (Design).

I am very interested in computing, politics, international and current affairs and sports. I like to keep abreast of developments in the computing, IT and gaming sectors, and I am especially interested in HCI and developing/designing user interfaces.

I am a dedicated, driven, enthusiastic person who is orientated towards taking initiative when required. I have excellent communication and "soft" skills; and I enjoy working in a varied, stimulating and multicultural environment.

I have also taken part in fundraising events for Kilbryde Hospice, Football Aid and The Celtic FC Foundation.
